In that way he might convert some of the owners who cling to the old order. The sale of the Chicago Cubs may be announced at this meeting. It is an open secret that the club is on the market, and it is known, too, that some of the Federal League owners have asked Mr. Taft for his terms. That the ways were shaped for the promulgation of such a deal was intimated several days ago, when Governor Tener, president of the National League, said that the sale of a franchise was distinctly a of a franchise was distinctly a er of private enterprise and that could not interfere in any deal that
